Autumn Term 2024

Friday 20th December

Dear parents/carers,

We have had an action-packed Christmassy last week at Highweek!

Nativities

Congratulations and thank you to all involved in the Key Stage One nativity this week. We loved hearing and watching the Christmas story through their performances of Born in a Barn. What a talented lot they are! Thank you for supporting this event.

A Festive Christmas sing-a-long

A big thank you to all that came to support the year 5 and 6 sing-a-long this week and/or donated cakes. We hope that you enjoyed all our musical events and performances this term over £150 was raised for the school from your kind donations on the door.

Musical showcase

This week we were treated to a number of performances by our Highweek musicians. Please see our Facebook post for the highlights.

Highweek's got talent- or has it?

To find out, please ask your children! Or take a look at our Facebook page later today.

A Busy Few Weeks!

What a busy and festive few weeks we've had! From Christmas performances and Lantern Parades to Grandparents' Lunches and Coffee Mornings, it's been a season full of joy and community spirit. We've put together a collage of our highlights to celebrate the wonderful memories made.

A huge thank you to everyone who has supported and helped organise these events. We truly couldn't have done it without you!

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! We look forward to welcoming you back, refreshed and ready for school, on Tuesday, 7th January 2025.

Rudolph Run Success!

A huge thank you to everyone who took part in our recent Rudolph Run!

Your energy, enthusiasm, and support helped us raise an incredible £825 for such a worthy cause. We're truly grateful for your generosity and community spirit together, we're making a real difference.

Wishing you all a wonderful holiday season!

Thank You!
